

Robinson Family VINEYARDS

SPRING 2022

SPRINGTIME: EVERYTHING'S POPPING OUT ALL OVER

Hi everyone,
Hope all is well with you and your families. It's spring and everyone (and everything!) is busy here at Robinson Family Vineyards.

IN THE VINEYARD

After the good, soaking rains we had back in December, it's been sunny, warm and dry, meaning an early start to the growing season. Budbreak started a month ago and the leaves are starting to pop out on the vines, and everything is looking good. We've been out with the tractor, mowing and disking between the vineyard rows to till the cover crops into the soil. These will break down and provide nutrients for the vines.

IN THE CELLAR

Things have been a little chillier in the cellar, as we cold stabilized then bottled our 2021 Rosé of Merlot (26 cases), Rosé of Cabernet Sauvignon (58 cases) and Sauvignon Blanc (125 cases) last week. The Rosés will be released soon, perfect for your spring and summer sipping. And of course, we've just released the 2018 lineup.

AROUND THE RANCH

Our fire prevention crew/herd finished mowing down the cover crop surrounding the vineyard, and are now on loan to neighbors, feasting on their grasses to minimize the risk of wildfires.
